Seeds of Solidarity Education Center is based at Seeds of Solidarity Farm, a 30 acre site and family farm. Long abandoned, the site is now vibrant and healing with abundant no-till gardens, solar greenhouses glowing with healthy greens, and energy efficient and artistic buildings. All electricity for the farm, education center, home and farmstand is from the sun. We are located at 165 Chestnut Hill Road, Orange, MA where you will also find our seasonal farmstand stocked with fresh greens and produce.

Regenerate soil, restore climate and revitalize community; DIY with our NEW Video on the No-till Cardboard Method.
